Naomie Alice Vail Burgener was born April 5, 1889, at Midway, Utah. Her parents, John Riley Vail and Alice White Vail moved to Thayne, Wyoming when she was real young. Then they moved to the Yellowstone Park where her father helped to clear brush and make way for the Mammoth Hotel that was built later close to the Old Faithful Geyser.

Her first schooling was at the Big Horn Basin now called Byron, Wyoming. Later they moved to the Teton Basin where her father built a home at Chapin Fremont Co., Idaho. They lived here for eleven years.

They then moved to Midway, Utah where she met and married George Albert Burgener. They were blessed with three children, all girls. Mrs. Burgener was appointed Postmaster by H. Hays, July 15, 1921.

It was a small fourth class office, but it advanced to almost triple in size and on July 1, 1945 it advanced to third class and Mrs. Burgener was re-appointed by Harry S. Truman as Postmaster November 17, 1945.

The town owned the building. When they decided to remove the building and build a larger building the Post Office was moved a block away until the building was completed. Then the office was moved back in a part of it and Mrs. Burgener was permitted to live in the back part of the building until she retired April 30, 1959. She was Postmaster for 38 years.

She purchased a home $\frac{1}{2}$ block from the Post Office where at present she takes care of her home and yard and raises beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Burgener was a Charter Member of the National Association of Postmasters. She never missed a state convention and has attended seven National Conventions. She enjoyed her work as Postmaster very much and says she misses the visits she had with her friends and neighbors since she retired.

Kay Probst was born and reared in Midway, Utah. When people ask us where it got its name, we just say it's such a pretty little town, we feel like we're Midway to Heaven. Kay married a gal (NaDone) from across the valley and they are the proud parents of three daughters and three sons.

Kay received his appointment as Postmaster June 21, 1963 and loves every minute of his work. He enjoys meeting people and is a special friend to every little kid in town.

The office is in a good location. Right in the middle of town and on the same block with the school, the town offices and recreation hall, and the Midway 2nd Ward Chapel. At present it is a third class office, but is steadily increasing in volume.

~~Prior to becoming Postmaster, Kay owned and operated a dairy farm. He~~ has served his country in the U.S. Navy, filled a I.D.S. Mission in Canada. He worked in the Bishopric in our ward for nine years and is presently serving in his tenth year on the High Council in Wasatch Stake.

JOHANNES (JOHN) AND MARY MURRI BURGNER

Johannes (John), was born March 31, 1858, in Spiez, Bern, Switzerland, and came to Utah with his parents, Jacob and Maria Muhlematter Burgener, at the age of six years. He grew up in Midway and was active in the Church and community. He married Mary Murri November 27, 1878, in Midway, later they went to the Logan Temple. When the Swiss Brass Band was organized by Andreas Burgener, John was one of the original members. The band played on many occasions in Midway and surrounding towns. John was a farmer, stock raiser, and horticulturist, doing most of his farming in Snake Creek and Lamb Canyon—property now owned by Nephi Probst. He also did odd jobs when he could get them. They had a small home in Lamb Canyon, then they moved into Midway for awhile, then they moved to the Sulzer place on Creek Hill where he built the home and where most of the family were born. John was an Elder and a ward teacher and he was called on many times to administer to the sacrament, as the older men did it then. In his later years, John sold part of his property to Ulrich Probst but kept the property surrounding the home and down to the creek and some in Snake Creek. He died at the family home on January 23, 1918 in Midway.

John's wife, Mary Murri, was born April 16, 1861, in Langnau, Bern, Switzerland, a daughter of John and Elizabeth Grosse-Murri. She came with her parents to Utah land. She was a pleasant, hard-working Swiss woman and took care of her family after her husband's death. She lived at the home, renting the farm ground until she could sell it. She finally sold the place to John A. Sulzer, who married her daughter, Elizabeth, and they moved to the home where her sons Alma and Joseph Burgener now live. She was left a widow for 26 years and died at the family home on February 13, 1944 and buried in Midway. They raised a family of ten children as follows:

John Jacob, born January 3, 1879, in Midway. He married Clara Durtschi on April 5, 1905. They had 11 children. He died January 15, 1927 in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

George Albert, born April 13, 1880 in Midway. He married first Naomi Alice Vail, recently retired postmistress of Midway, on August 15, 1906. They had three children. He married second, Emily Almira Bunce, November 11, 1925, and they now reside in Richmond, California.

Mary Elizabeth, born April 11, 1881, in Midway and married John Albert Sulzer, May 25, 1898. They had six children, several still living in Midway. She died June 2, 1945.

Henry Alma, born April 15, 1883, in Midway, married Hazel McDonald. They had two children. He now lives in Midway.

Edward Lawrence, born January 18, 1887, in Midway, married Sophronia Krebs March 25, 1916. They had four children. He now herds sheep near Currant Creek in Duchesne County.

William Walter, born September 15, 1889, in Midway, married first, Kate Van Wagoner, October 10, 1913. He married second, Celestia Cummings June 14, 1920, they have two children. They live in Heber City.

Grace Eve, born January 5, 1893 in Midway, married Willard McDonald November 9, 1910. They have five children. She now lives at Roosevelt, Utah.

Karl Andrew, born March 13, 1896, in Midway. He never married. Died on February 10, 1929.

Joseph Burnell, born June 24, 1899, in Midway, married first, Mae Casper, December 24, 1928, married second, Vivian Brooks, they had two children. He now lives in Midway.

1959 Naomi Burgener Retires as Mid. Postmistress

Mrs. Naomi Burgener has retired as Postmistress of the Midway Post Office, a position she has held for 38 years.

She was first appointed to this position in July 1921. At that time the post office was located in an old pot rock school building on the town square.

Mrs. Burgener recalls her first wages were paid according to the amount of stamps sold. This amounted to about $23 a month and was paid every three months. At that time it was a fourth class office. On July 1, 1945, the office was advanced to 3rd class. Mrs. Burgener was re-appointed at that time, and Thelma Blood Carlile worked as her clerk until July 1, 1948.

She has set a record of never missing a state convention. She has attended two national conventions, one in San Francisco and one in Los Angeles, and is now making plans to attend the national in Washington, D. C. this fall.

Mrs. Burgener was honored at a program Friday night, by the townspeople, under the direction of Ruby Provost. Those on the program were: accordion solo, Bonnie Gertsch; duet, Margie Provost and Roy Huffaker; accompanied by June Tatton; skit, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Durtschi and Mrs. Walter Durtschi; vocal solo by Barbara Zenger, accompanied by June Tatton; reading, Maude Derry; Selection of favorite old tunes of Mrs. Burgener, June Tatton; vocal solo, Bryan Blood, accompanied by Mrs. Tatton; tribute, Lethe Tatge; speeches were made by Bishop Elmer Kohler, Mayor Earl Kohler and Mrs. Burgener; duet, by Margie Provost and Roy Huffaker.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR MOTHER
BY
Doris B. Nicol

To the most loved woman and mother - Our Mother - Naomi Alice Vail Burgener.

She was born April 5, 1889, at Midway, Wasatch County, Utah. Daughter of John Riley Vail and Alice White Vail O'Neil.

She married George Albert Burgener and was later divorced. There were three children born to this union. Juanita, Geneva and Doris. Juanita died with childbirth, leaving a small baby girl named Juanita (Nita). This baby was raised as a daughter and sister.

Mother lived most of her life in Midway. She was Post-mistress for 38 years and retired in April 1959.

During that time she went many times to many Post Office Conventions and Tours. She was a Counselor in the Primary and taught a class in the Sunday School. Later she was president of the Y.W. M.I.A. for 8 years.

Since retiring she did Temple Work and Genealogy work. She was a member of the Daughter's of the Utah Pioneers and belonged to the Hawthorn Camp of Midway, and a member of the Garden Club.

She has 9 Grand children, 27 Great-grandchildren and 10 Great-great-grandchildren.

She was always a loving, kind, warm person, who always looked out for other people's needs. Whenever you walked into her door she hurried to set the table and insisted on your eating with her.

She is the one who will always hold most dear to us.

Other comments by Alberta Provost who read Naomi's Tribute to her said of her that she was ever helpful in seeing that people got their mail, even on Sundays if they wanted it and that there was no phone where school children could phone home to their parents except the one at the Post Office and Naomi would always invite them in to use her phone.

Ruby Provost a Loyal and true friend spoke lovingly of Naomi, that she was a true friend, and a wonderful neighbor and that she would do anything in the world for you. Never a word of gossip and was always good to everyone and that she didn't know of a missionary that went on a mission from Midway that Naomi didn't send money to each month while they were away.

Her Granddaughter, Neta Ross Zenger wrote the following Biography of Naomi for Alberta Provost for this occasion.

Naomi Vail Burgener was born April 5, 1889 at Midway, Utah. When a baby the family moved to Thayne, Wyoming, then to Yellowstone Park, then to Chapin, Idaho. She started School at Big Horn Basin. She had five sisters and four brothers.

She was married to George Burgener in Heber Aug. 15, 1906 by Bishop Jacob Probst. Naomi and George moved to Park City. On July 25, 1907 her first child Juanita was born. She had two other daughters Geneva and Doris Burgener.

Juanita died right after the birth of her first child, who was named Juanita. Naomi took her granddaughter and raised her as her daughter.

She held many Church positions in the Sunday School, RELief Society, Primary and the MIA. She loved working with the young people and they put on many plays in MIA.

In July 1921 she recieved her first appointment as Postmistress of the Midway Post Office. She loved her job at the Post Office. The Post Office was the 4th Class when she took it. It was located in an old Pot Rock building where the Midway Town Hall now stands. Wages were paid according to sale of stamps in those days. She averaged about $23.00 a month.

On July 1, 1945 the Post Office was advanced to 3rd class. Thelma Carlile was appointed as her clerk July 1, 1948.

She retired after 38 years. She never missed a State Convention and attended three National Conventions held for the Post Offices. She loved to travel.

Naomi loved people. She was always doing something for someone, but didn't want anyone to know about it.

When most of the boys went to war, Naomi said, "it was most interesting with my job when I could make someone happy, especially, young wives and mothers, by handing out mail to them from their loved ones in the service. No One can imagine the anxiety of those people and how they waited for a letter."

This Tribute was read to Naomi at the DUP meeting held for the Hawthorn Camp on October 19, 1981 at the Valley Art Center and since then the Daughter's dear friend and member passed away Nov. 2, 1981 in Draper. It has saddened our DUP Camp of daughters and the whole county and our town of Midway to loose a great woman, daughter, and friend as we feel she was to us. We shall always cherish her memory and the great person she was and offer our sympathy to her family and loved ones and friends. May her good works radiate to all of us to take her example and pass along the love and affection she had for all wherever she was. I feel I have lost a great friend, whom I used to enjoy so much attending the lovely temple sessions with her when she went with me many times to the temple at Provo and several times to Salt Lake City. She was always willing to go and would go as many sessions any one else went and never lagged behind the rest, but was full of life and on her toes and right up there with the rest of we who were younger. God bless her memory. Neva W. Fillmore Captain of the Midway Hawthorn DUP Camp.
